

Warehousing Association of India (WAI) and CARGO TALK have collaborated to bring the warehousing ecosystem together and update them with relevant news, views and developments that impact the sector. Cargo Breaking News and WAI Talk are a small step in this direction. The news will be served directly into your inbox weekly. Thank you for subscribing.

NLP unveiled to develop MMLPs infra and connectivity

Prime Minister Narendra Modi launched the much-awaited National Logistics Policy (NLP) in the national capital on September 17 which, he said, was an important step towards the 'making of a developed India,' while adding that the policy has come with a 'new energy for every sector.' In his address, PM Modi said, "In the Amrit Kaal, the country has taken an important step towards the making of a developed India.

READ MORE >

India's No. 1 Cargo Magazine

E-Handbook on Warehousing Standards 2022 launched

Warehousing Association of India (WAI) is privileged to be entrusted by Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT) to update and publish the E-Handbook on Warehousing Standards. The E-handbook was officially released at the launch of the National Logistics Policy by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi on his 72nd Birthday. The E-handbook defines the best practices in Warehouse construction & maintenance,

READ MORE >

New National Logistics Policy to trim logistics cost

Prime Minister Narendra Modi said India should work towards reducing logistics as a percentage of Gross Domestic Product (GDP). "Logistics cost needs to be reduced to single digit at the earliest from 13-14 percent," said PM in his speech. "The National Logistics Policy is the first step in reducing logistics costs in India.

READ MORE >

NLP introduces IDS to facilitate cargo movement

The National Logistics policy introduces an Integrated Digital System (IDS) which will bring together different ministries like road transport, railways, customs, aviation, foreign trade, and commerce on one platform. All the departments will have their own digital data which will be integrated under IDS to help

READ MORE >

Scan QR Code to get your E-handbook:

For more information, log on to www.warehousingindia.org

